

My Good Advice

What would I say to you?
If this Song wouldn't be recorded
You wouldn't here my singin' voice
And all my good advice

I wouldn't change the chord I play
Cause it doesn't really matter
What would you really like to know?
Is it what I'm thinking?

I'm drinking coffee hot and sweet
Would you disagree?
I like scrambled eggs with ham
And dip' cheese in strawberry jam

Whoooohoooohooooo...

What would I say to you?
If this song would be my last one
It's all about love - life is in between

So turn off all your electronic devices

Whoooohoooohooooo...
