

Everybody Loves Her

She lives alone in this lousy old shack All by herself
her husband is a cat - don't you know

Teebags over her head steaming kettle is on the fire Everybody loves her
every guy and every girl this charming lady from downtown

She's got a big heart there's room enough for everyone she's never felt alone sometimes she feels a little bit lonely

She would never kill a fly or lie to anyone
Everybody loves her
every guy and every girl
This charming Lady from downtown

Sometimes she's sad nobody dries her weeping eyes her only friend is the cat - meow!

Everybody needs her
everybody loves her
but nobody knows her name
